

Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station

Phase 2 freezing of Landside Impermeable Wall starts

Reference

June 6, 2016

Tokyo Electric Power Company Holdings, Inc.

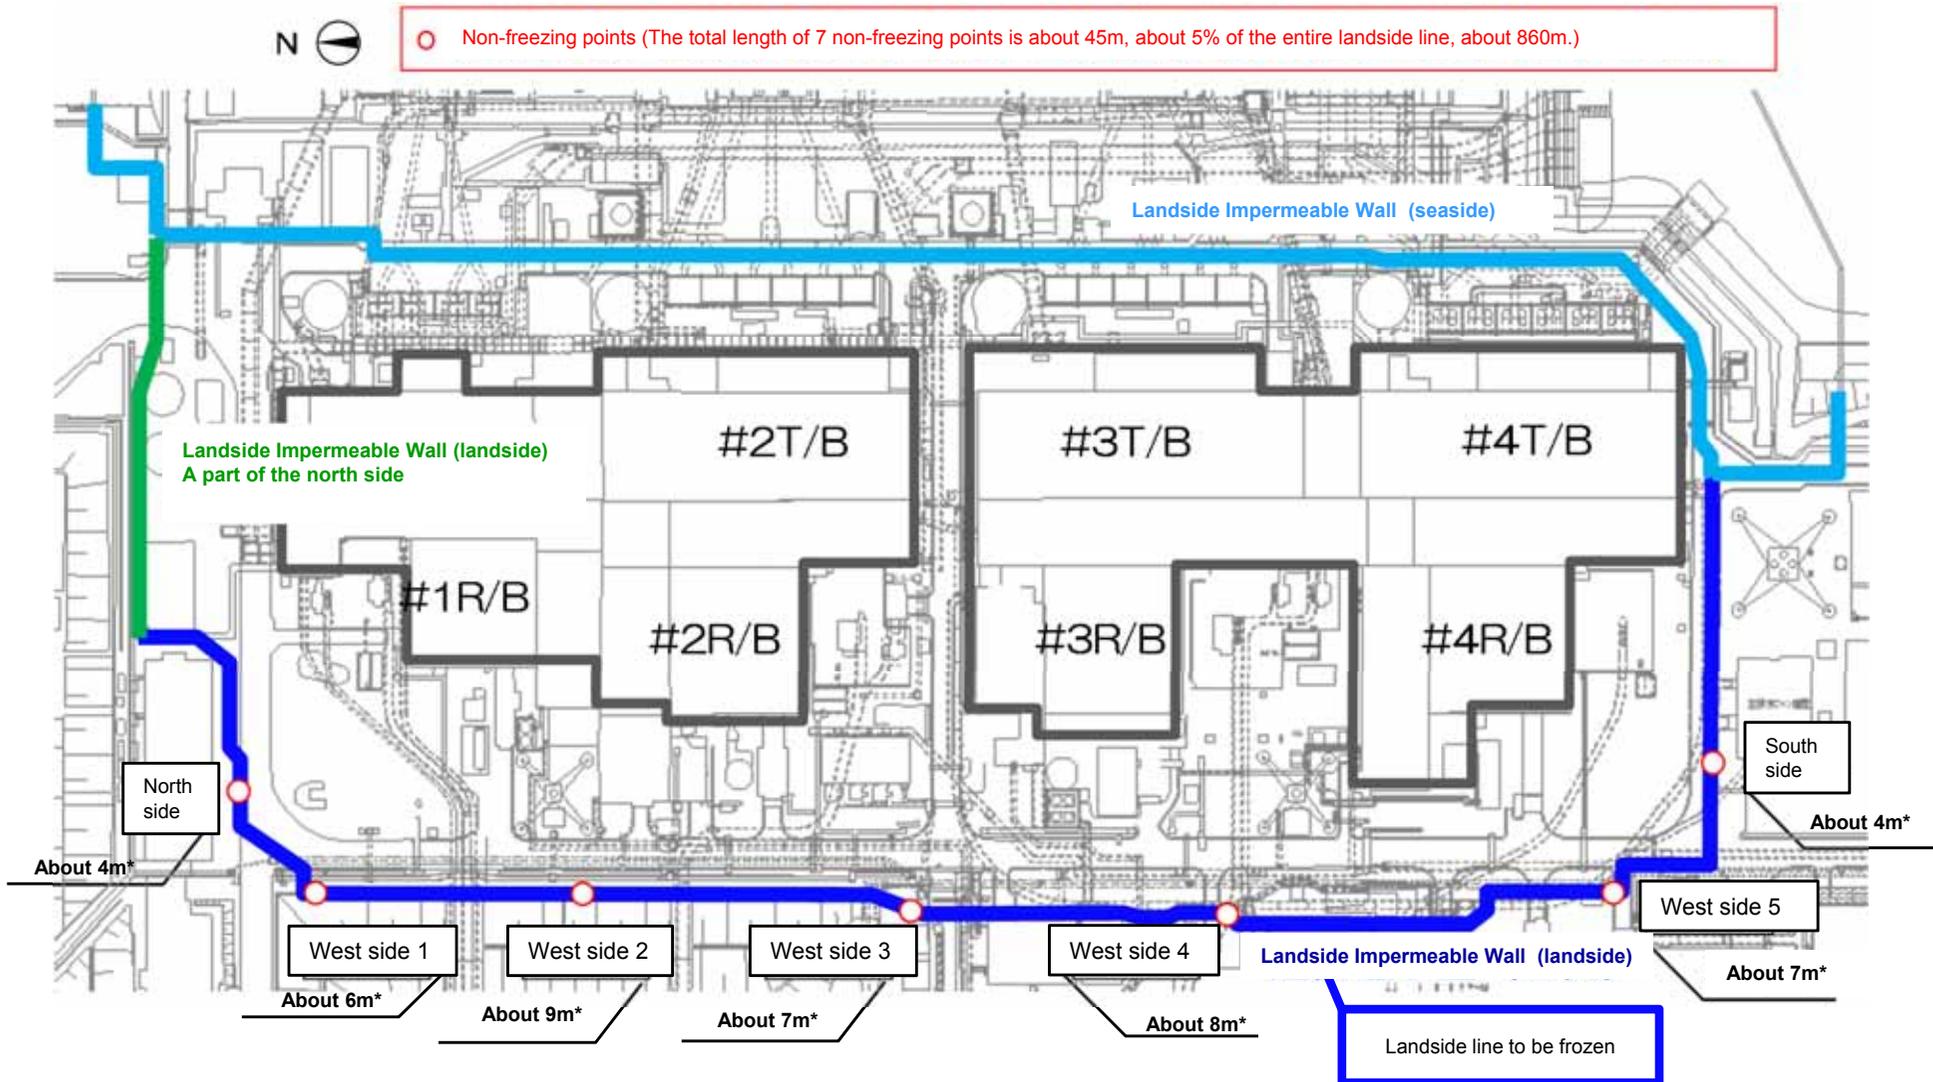

From 10:15 a.m. on June 6, 2016, refrigeration valves on the soil freezing pipes were opened (the start of Phase 2).

Source : Tokyo Electric Power Company Holdings, Inc.
Date : June 6, 2016

First stage: closure areas (Phase 2)

- In Phase 2 of the first stage, the landside line of the wall will be frozen except for 7 non-freezing points, ensuring groundwater flow into the closure areas where the reactor and turbine buildings are located.

* The numbers indicate the total length of each non-freezing point.