

Caution points on the field

Fujiyama Power-line Trail

-  MTB Trail course
  -  Paved forest road(Return)
  -  Transmission tower
  -  Danger or caution point
- ※Please be sure to pause at stop signs.

In addition to the hazards and caution points shown on the map, there may be other hazards depending on the rider's riding skill. If you are a beginner, please reduce your speed or get off your bicycle before riding a steep incline. Please note that ladders are installed in places other than those shown on the map. Please be careful as there is general traffic on the forest road.
